About Higashikawa, “The Town of Photography” in Hokkaido

Located almost directly in the center of Hokkaido in Japan, this unique town declared itself as the Town of Photography in June, 1985 with the aim of creating a pleasant town full of vitality which is open to the world, where nature and culture can exist in harmony through both international exchange and photography.

What is the International High School Students' Photo Festival Exchange?

Since 2015, we have held this festival to connect people across the world through encouraging new conversations between students, expanding their friendships, and aiming for a world of everlasting peace.

We accept applications for works (a series of photos) based on the designated theme from the countries and regions listed below. Qualifiers are held in each region, and then the selected schools will be invited to Higashikawa to participate in the festival.

International Teams (Cities, districts and towns are designated by the organizer.)
