Hokkaido ‘Town of Photography’ Higashikawa

In June 1985, Higashikawa was declared the only “Town of Photography” in the world. It aims to promote international exchange and photography in order to open the town to the world and share its unique harmony between nature and culture.

Purpose of the Festival

Higashikawa Town, the “Cultural Capital of Photography,” has been aiming for a future in harmony between the town’s nature and culture for 35 years since it was declared a Town of Photography. Higashikawa Town, as the center of photography culture, has been holding the International High School Students’ Photo Festival Exchange to connect photography culture with the people of the world, with the aim of deepening conversation, expanding the circle of friendship, and wishing for the world peace through photography culture.
